

Gray wins Dash Down Greenville

Joe Gray, 24, a former Oklahoma State standout, won the Dash Down Greenville in Dallas on March 15 with a 15:20. Runner-up was Clint Bell, 28, of Dallas with a 15:41, followed by Ryan Gorman, 27, of Dallas with a 15:46. Melisa Christian, 31, of Dallas ran away from the women to win in 17:00. Second was Becky Angeles, 29, of Nevada, TX, with an 18:41, and third was Ashley Nunez, 28, of Dallas with an 18:57. Christian barely missed out on a $250 bonus being offered to the first female to beat 17 minutes.

There were 2,151 participants timed in the race that offered prize money. Overall male and female winners received $150 each, runners-up, $100, and third place, $50.