

The temperature was a little cool, but to get in the spirit of participating in the Fort Worth Runners Club's Tropical 10-Mile and Hawaiian 5K on Sunday (Dec. 7), these runners donned their Hawaiian garb to compete in the costume contest. Michael Polansky, right, of RunTime Racing Services also looked the part as he introduced the contestants. Photo submitted by Movin' Pictures. See more pictures of the race (and others) at www.movin-pictures.com.