

Fast times at Indie 5K

You might have noticed the fast times at the Indie 5K on Nov. 12 in Dallas. Joe Jacobs, a Mizuno rep, was the fastest with a 15:15.13 Jacobs also had won the Route 66 half marathon in Tulsa the week before. He said the temperature in Dallas was perfect for running at 50 degrees, quite a contrast when he won the FWRC Labor Day 5K in 16:35.7 on a warm, humid morning. Finishing behind Jacobs was Gregory Liebl, who Jacobs said has logged a 14:20, in 15:23.07, and third was former NCAA cross country champ Keith Kelly, who has run a 13:42 and who finished in 15:27.94. Jacobs said because of his recent training, he believed he was in 15:20 condition when he entered the race.
