

Beisner almost nails his prediction

Joe Beisner had aimed for a sub 49:30 at the DRC Tal Morrison 15K on Saturday morning (Feb.6), and finished close enough with a 49:37.55 to be happy with the result considering a tough headwind he battled the final mile. His effort was good enough to win the male title with Kimplimo Chemirmir, who finished in 51:31.47, coming in second. Vanessa Kelley won the women's division with a 1:03:47.26 while Sandra Ricaud finished second in 1:05:12.75. In the 5K at the event conducted at Winfrey Point at White Rock Lake, Kenny Stice had to battle Noe Nunez and Patrick Renault before taking the male title in 17:34.93. Nunez crossed the line in 17:38.91 and Renault in 17:41.91. Christell Baum also had to turn back Katie Bouton before winning the women's title in 20:23.47 to 20:37.36.
