

Hall, Tucker win divisions

Ken Hall and eighth-grader Molly Tucker led the way in Saturday morning's (April 24) Hound Dog Hustle 5K in Grapevine. Hall won the overall male title in 16:44.2. Molly, who owns an 18:05 PR, finished in 18:14.8. Leana Sloan, left, was the women's masters winner. The event included a 1-mile run/walk for dogs and their human pets. The 5K also served as the RRCA State Championship.

Among other events on April 24, the Komen Tarrant Race For The Cure in downtown Fort Worth had several thousand participants. In the timed 5K, champ Agustin Hernandez, 37, of Irving won the male title in 16:16.14 and Sonya Correa, 28, of Dallas was the first female in 18:12.95. It was Sonya's sixth overall victory of the year at D-FW area races. The respective masters winners were Cora Turner, 40, of Alvarado in 19:28.27 and Ed Swiatocha, 59, of Keller who zipped to an 18:12.85.
