

It was a rosy start for Run For The Roses

They're off at the first Run For The Roses 5K on Dec. 18 at Birdville High School on a near-perfect morning for running -- low 30s, sunny and no wind. The race honored the All Birdville Marching Band that will perform at the Parade of Roses in Pasadena, Calif., where TCU will face Wisconsin on Jan. 1. Birdville schools Fine Arts director Daniel Detricks, right, cut the ribbon to help start the race. Visit later for results. More pictures available at Movin' Pictures.

Birdville schools Fine Arts director Daniel Detricks says a few words before cutting the ribbon. Noe Nunez, 22, won the male division and Fiona Green, 46, of Keller won the female division.
