

Becky Angeles won the women's title at the Hottest Half in Dallas on Sunday (Aug. 23) with a 1:26:47.66. There were 821 who finished the half and 374 who finished the accompanying 10K. Photos submitted by Emily Willemin.

William Moore, a former Dallas Marathon winner, won the men's masters title at the Hottest Half with a 1:18:40.89. Joshua Trevino, recent runner-up at the McKinney Historical Run, won the men's overall title with a hot 1:10:26.55. Craig Minyard won the 10K in 36:24.5 and Colleen Casey, second overall, won the women's title in 39:03.86.

Well, bless my soul, there was an Elvis sighting at the Hottest Half on Sunday. He poses with Emily Willemin, who submitted the above photos. Elvis has aged well.
