

Micky Mead, a 12-year-old from McKinney won the male overall title at the Kieron Go Brah 5K on Saturday (Oct. 17) in 19:56.63 and Cynthia Baker, 21, of Frisco won the female overall award in 24:28.89. The pace picked up considerably on the near-perfect morning for running (mid 50s and no wind) at the Komen Dallas County Race For The Cure. Former TCU runner Kip Kangogo, 30, of Lethbridge AB won with a blazing 14:24. Logan Sherman, 23, of Dallas finished second in 14:54 while Koby Styles, 25, of Holliday took third with a 15:06. In the female division, Melissa Cook, 29, of Flower Mound won by 29 seconds over Jody Hawkins with a 16:26. Third was Melissa Christian, 33, of Dallas in 17:03. Many women who have won overall titles at area races were entered in the event that had more than 900 timed finishers. Several posted faster times on the Fastest at Metroplex races list.
