

Not too hot to run in Dallas

Despite the controversial ban on parking in the grass at White Rock Lake, some 2,000 runners showed up to run the Too Hot To Handle 5K, 15K on Saturday morning (July 18). Francisco Lavariego won the 5K in 16:48:59 and Colleen Casey took the women's title in 18:17.21. In the 15K, Koby Styles, overcoming runner-up Joe Beisner after the 5K mark, won in 50:43. Beisner finished in 51:18. Shaheen Satlar also moving to the front after passing the 5K mark, won the women's division in 1:01.52.
