

Keith Pierce is shown holding the framed Cowtown poster that he won from this website. He won among those who had ordered something from Amazon.com via a link from this website, which placed him in a random drawing for the poster. Pierce, who has moved to Austin from Krum, is the only runner to have won three consecutive Cowtowns, but he said El Scorcho was his longest run.