

Tucker, Bell win Freedom Run

Clint Bell, 28, (No. 241) of Dallas won the Freedom Run 5K on Tuesday (Sept. 11) evening in Dallas by almost a minute with a 15:49.8 clocking. Finishing second was Nicholas Luft, 28, of Keller with a 16:48.5 on the night that honored our military and those who died on Sept. 11, 2001, in the terrorists attacks.

In the women's division, 11-year-old Molly Tucker (No. 842) of Southlake edged Elizabeth Meraz, 29, of Dallas with a 20:01.9. Meraz finished with a 20:20.7 gun time and 20:18 chip time at the event that started at the AT&T Plaza at American Airlines Center. Photo submitted by John Tucker.

This is part of the approximately 1,000 runners and walkers who participated in the Freedom Run on Tuesday (Sept. 11) evening in Dallas. The event was staged at the AT&T Plaza at the American Airlines Center. Clint Bell, 28, of Dallas won the men's division and Molly Tucker, 11, of Southlake won the women's division. Clint is shown coming down the stretch (middle photo submitted by Stan Bell). Molly is shown at the start (bottom left photo) and on the course. Photos submitted by John Tucker.