

Fiona Green is not only a top masters runner in the area, but she's also a photographer and now an author. Her book ``Mewsing: Exploring the Feline Mystique" has just come out. It has great pictures of cats and a lot of information about them. If you're interested in ordering the book, see the link on the bottom right hand side of the home page. Fiona ran the DRC's President's Run 10K and posted 42:03.96 to win the women's masters title. In the 5K, Jeffery Arnier Jr., 16, won the men's race in 16:14.8 and Suzanne Morgan, 19, won the women's division in 18:28.76. See results. And the DRC had another record turnout at a monthly race with 474 finishers.

Brette Fleming-Wood, a 17-year-old senior at Mansfield High School, won the women's 10K at the Dallas Running Club's President's 5K, 10K on Saturday (Feb. 2) with a personal-best 38:13.43. It was her first road-race since she was sidelined by an left ankle fracture for almost two months. She resumed her training a little over a month ago. She said her previous PR was 38:53. Three other teens won the overall titles in the 10K and 5K races. Clint Bell, 28, won the men's title in 32:53.98.
